

OUR MENTORING PROGRAM

DESIGNATES A MENTOR FOR EVERY STUDENT

A faculty or a school staff is assigned to a student

WHO IS HIGHLY CAPABLE AND TRAINED

Trainings are based on principles set by the PAREF system

TO BE A COMPETENT GUIDE TO HIS MENTEE

It is his role to be an advocate and a good role model

IN ACHIEVING HIS MENTEE'S GOALS IN LIFE

Because every child has the potential to become great

Our unique mentoring system encompasses six key areas

Personalized formation

Formation for parents

Demanding academic standards

Home and school collaboration

Fidelity to the teachings of the Catholic Church

Solid character formation program

This is a proven way that our unique MENTORING PROGRAM will ultimately ensure your son's future!

01

Educating the person in responsible freedom

Each student is seen as a unique person, gifted with intelligence and free will and the capacity to shape his life and to be ultimately responsible for it.

02

We are an extension of the family

That is why the school's environment is that of a bright and cheerful home, which is both demanding and understanding.

03

Parents and teachers: educating themselves first

The parents and teachers strive together to form themselves to become effective educators and inspiring examples of love of learning and virtue.

04

The Westbridge family and its role in society

Their zest for learning and virtue is driven by a personal vision of their role in the community, which stems from love of God and sense of responsibility.

05

We teach our students to become gentlemen

Pious and with a sporting spirit, honed in the sciences and the arts, and equipped with leadership and interpersonal skills.

THE STARS

THE THREE MAJOR PLAYERS

In educating a student, we believe in the active participation of the parents, the teachers, and the students themselves.

Westbridge is a private school for boys that puts due emphasis on both the academic and values formation of its students. Formation is facilitated by an environment conducive to learning, an immersive mentoring program, qualified and dedicated teachers, a superior faculty-to-student ratio, and a solid values education

Our Vision

HOMINI INTEGRITATIS

Literally translated as MEN OF INTEGRITY. We envision our students to be holistically formed, true men of character who contribute to the common good of society.

WE BELIEVE THAT YOUR SON CAN BECOME ONE AS WELL.

Parents for Education Foundation (PAREF) is an educational foundation established in 1975 by parents inspired by the teachings of St. Josemaria Escriva, the founder of Opus Dei, that only by having well-formed parents and teachers can the school have students of the right quality and virtue.

PAREF presently has 11 schools in the Philippines: Southridge, Woodrose, and Ridgefield in Muntinlupa, Rosemont and Rosehill in Antipolo, Rosefield and Northfield in Quezon City, Southcrest, Springdale, and Southdale in Cebu, and Ridgefield and Westbridge in Iloilo City.

It is the mission of Westbridge to holistically develop each student through a solid academic and values formation, a dedicated mentoring system and the close collaboration between parents and professional teachers.

WAVY LINES

THE VIRTUES THAT WE STAND FOR

These symbolizes the fundamental virtues that we teach and live by example: competence, integrity, and the spirit of service.

THE FISH

BY THE TRADITIONAL METHOD OF USING A ROD AND A LINE, ONE CATCHES A FISH BY ITS HEAD.

It is in this essence that we establish the foundation of our means of formation: by inculcating in students the necessary education which are coupled with solid doctrinal criteria.

THE RATINGS

THE FINEST

We nurture the scholars

We make it a point that our commitment to provide the best formative and well-rounded quality education are received by those who are deserving. Our partnership with various individuals and organizations through the years have been unfaltering in assisting students who have the potential to become scholastically and athletically distinguished.

THE AMBIENCE

Conducive learning environment

We provide a suitable venue for optimum teaching and learning experience. Our small teacher-to-student ratio and one-section grade levels that are coupled by the mentoring approach ensures that students receive the right amount of attention to learn and, at the same time, have enough liberty to express themselves independently.

THE ZEAL

Our resounding call to become great

We rear our students to become gentlemen of integrity and character. It has become our mission to impart in them the concept that intelligence should be paired with virtue, and that good works should be echoed in everything that they do. We ensure exposure to civic welfare activities that will ultimately urge them to contribute to the common good of society.

The Parents for Education Foundation, Inc. is the umbrella network of all schools adhering to its standards and unique approach to educating the child. It necessitates the importance for parents to be the primary movers in the education of their children and the teachers perform a collaborative and supportive role to the parents as inspired by the teachings of St. Josemaria Escrivá, the founder of Opus Dei.

Educhild is primarily the foremost arm in parent-oriented programs. It aims to guide parents to become effective leaders of their families in today's very challenging environment. It is an affiliate of the International Federation for Family Development (IFFD) based in Madrid, Spain.

Opus Dei is a Personal Prelature of the Catholic Church. It is entrusted with the spiritual formation of the students, teachers, staffs, and the parents, and ensures the doctrinal and moral soundness of the other aspects of formation imparted in Westbridge.

The University of Asia and the Pacific provides strategic assistance in the faculty and staff development of Westbridge through various year-round trainings and seminars. It is an institution of higher learning that offers an outstanding academic program and personal development rarely found in the Asian region.
